

WALTER C. COWLES, RETIRED ADMIRAL, DIES IN CALIFORNIA

REDLANDS, Cal., Nov. 27.—Rear Admiral Walter Cleveland Cowles, retired, is dead here after an illness of one week. His son, Lieut. W. B. Cowles, U. S. N., has arrived from a Pacific port.

Born in Connecticut sixty-four years ago, Admiral Cowles gave practically his entire life to the United States navy. His last active duty was as commander of the Pacific fleet, retiring in July, 1915. He was one time commander of the United States naval station at Havana, and was also head of the Atlantic fleet.

Besides his wife and a son, Admiral Cowles is survived by a brother, Rear Admiral William Sheffield Cowles, retired, of Farmington, Conn.

Teach Children To Use Cuticura Soap

Because it is best for their tender skins. Help it now and then with touches of Cuticura Ointment applied to first signs of redness, roughness, pimples or dandruff. If mothers would only use these super-creamy emollients for every-day toilet purposes how much suffering might be avoided by preventing little skin and scalp troubles becoming serious.

OLD AGE A CRIME

Some people are young at 60—red cheeks, ruddy and vigorous. Others are old at 40—joints beginning to stiffen up a bit, beginning to lag and lose its springiness; occasional twinges of pain in the back, feet tired without cause, and possibly a twinge of rheumatic pain.

In most cases these are the danger signals to warn you that the kidneys are not properly doing their work of throwing off the poisons that are always forming in the body. To neglect these natural warnings is a crime against yourself. If you have these symptoms you can find prompt relief in GOLD MEDAL Haasem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this has been the recognized remedy for kidney and bladder ailments.

GOLD MEDAL Haasem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laborer at Haasem, Holland. Get them at your drug store. Do not take a substitute. In boxes three sizes.

THOMPSON WAS NOT DRUNK, MYSTERIOUS CHAMPION ASSERTS

A "reputable citizen," whose identity has not been disclosed, will prove Charles N. Thompson, principal of Jefferson school, suspended for alleged intoxication, innocent of the charge, according to statements of friends of the school official today.

That this citizen has written to Ernest L. Thurston, superintendent of schools, declaring that Thompson was not intoxicated on the night he was arrested for driving an auto while under the influence of liquor, was revealed by Mrs. Susie Root Rhodes, a member of the Board of Education, at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Mrs. Rhodes, in protesting against the secret inquiry by the board into the charges against Thompson, said: "Mr. Thompson's entire career is jeopardized by the charge that he was drunk. The police records show that he was arrested for intoxication and the newspapers have printed that statement."

Wants Case in Open.

"I happen to know that the entire community represented by the Jefferson School is behind Mr. Thompson, and that the community desires to be informed exactly where the case against Mr. Thompson stands. In addition, a reputable citizen who was with Mr. Thompson all the evening previous to the occasion of his arrest, has written a letter to the superintendent stating that Mr. Thompson was not intoxicated."

"On account of these and other circumstances, I desire to make the proper motion to bring the charges against Mr. Thompson into the open and prevent any evasion of the law which requires that the Board of Education deal with such matters openly."

A motion made by H. B. Lerner, "That the matter of Charles N. Thompson, now under suspension, be referred to the corporation counsel for the formation of proper charges and specifications for trial, and that in the meantime the suspension be continued," having precedence over Mrs. Rhodes' motion, was voted upon and adopted, Mrs. Rhodes voting in the negative.

Trial in Two Weeks.

Today the case is in the hands of Corporation Counsel Conrad H. Syme. It was said today that Francis H. Stevens, assistant corporation counsel, who has conducted many cases for the Board of Education, probably will conduct the District's case.

The trial will probably be held within two weeks. The Board of Education will sit as the jury. Thompson has not yet engaged counsel to defend him.

Miss J. M. Cropper, colored teacher of class four in the Deanwood school, and a teacher for more than 17 years, was suspended from the public school system by the Board of Education on recommendation of Roscoe C. Bruce, assistant superintendent of schools.

Y. W. C. A. WILL GIVE 60-CENT TURKEY FEAST

The high cost of eating has no terrors for the Y. W. C. A., for it announced today that Thursday it would serve a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner with turkey and all the usual side dishes for the insignificant price of 60 cents.

Moreover, the dinners are to be taken on a long hike in the afternoon so that all may be in prime appetite when Mr. Turkey is ready in the evening.

The hikers are asked to meet at the end of the Georgetown street car line at 3 o'clock. The route from there will be on foot to Cherrydale and back to the association building, where there will be music and games, and most important of all, dinner, which will be served from 5 o'clock to 7:30.

RINTELEN CONVICTED OF PASSPORT FRAUD

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Francis Rintelen, German naval reservist, now serving a sentence in the Mercer county, N. J., penitentiary for conspiring with David Lamar to cause strikes in American munition plants, will begin a twenty-months' sentence in the Atlanta Federal prison at the completion of his term in the New Jersey pen.

Rintelen was found guilty yesterday in New York of conspiring with Andrew D. Meloy to obtain a passport under the alias of Henry V. Gates.

Rintelen was one time companion of Prince Henry of Prussia.
